THE GREAT VINTAGES OF
CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

*A century of vitality, elegance and audacity.
Each of these great vintages is a testament to the character,
creativity and unwavering pursuit of excellence that define Château Mouton Rothschild.*

1921

A CENTURY OF VITALITY AND ELEGANCE.

*One of the earliest legendary Mouton vintages.
Remarkable vitality and elegance after more than a century.
A rare survivor from the post-war era of Bordeaux.*

1928

A MONUMENTAL PRE-WAR CLASSIC.

*A monumental vintage renowned for concentration, structure and extraordinary longevity.
Considered among the greatest wines produced at Mouton before the Second World War.*

1955

THE BALANCE OF A NEW ERA.

*Classic post-war Bordeaux.
Powerful yet refined, showing the balance and aristocratic character that defines mature Pauillac.*

1964

ELEGANT AND HARMONIOUS.

*Elegant and beautifully proportioned.
Known for purity of fruit, cedar, tobacco and exceptional harmony.*

1970

RICH, EXPRESSIVE AND PROFOUND.

*Rich and expressive with notable depth.
One of the strongest vintages of the decade and highly regarded by collectors.*

1971

FINESSE AND AROMATIC COMPLEXITY.

*A vintage prized for finesse and aromatic complexity.
Often displaying remarkable balance and maturity.*

1973

CHARM IN A CHALLENGING YEAR.

Produced in a difficult year but capable of surprising charm and nuance from well-preserved bottles.

1975

STRUCTURE AND LONGEVITY.

*A structured and powerful vintage with firm tannins.
Built for long ageing and now revealing tertiary complexity.*

1979

CLASSICAL ELEGANCE.

*Elegant, classical Bordeaux.
Fresh, refined and beautifully mature with distinctive Pauillac character.*

1985

A BENCHMARK MODERN VINTAGE.

*A benchmark modern vintage.
Silky texture, concentration and superb balance make it one of the most celebrated mature Moutons.*

*“Premier je suis,
second je fus,
Mouton ne change.”*

PAUILLAC

PLAN DES GRANDS CRUS

APPELLATION PAUILLAC CONTRÔLÉE

The narrow strip of gravel terraces overlooking the Gironde estuary produces some of the world's most celebrated Cabernet Sauvignon.

Among the First Growths of Bordeaux, Château Mouton Rothschild occupies a unique place—an estate where innovation, artistry and winemaking excellence converge.

For over a century Mouton has stood as a benchmark of Pauillac, combining extraordinary longevity with a succession of artist-designed labels that transformed wine packaging into cultural history.
